Report of the seventeenth Meeting of States parties

Corrigendum

Paragraph 96

At the end of the paragraph, insert the following sentence:

> One delegation (France) made a statement in which, after stressing that the discussions on the issue had been of an essentially informal nature and based on informal documents which appeared to be mere working papers, it expressed reservations regarding the reference in the decision to annexes which had never been formally submitted in all the working languages of the meeting.
